

2022 CROWN POINT PRESS: SUMMER ETCHING WORKSHOP APPLICATION

We don't ask to see examples of your art as part of your application because, on principle, we don't make judgments about the art of our workshop participants, either before or during the workshops.

For all new and returning applicants, please send an email to Sasha Baguskas (workshops@crownpoint.com) with the following information:

Your name, address, phone number, email.

Which workshop session(s) you would like to participate in, with alternates if possible. Please make clear your order of preference for the dates.

Have you taken our workshops before?

Please tell us a little bit about yourself—are you an artist, printer, photographer, student, teacher, curator, or interested layperson in the print world? Have you worked with printmaking before? What medium? How extensively? Please make this brief.

We will accept applications through February 18 or until the workshop is full. We do not accept applications via phone. Confirmation of your placement in the workshop will be by email, and payment in full is confirmation of your participation. Payment is due in full within 48 hours of acceptance.

COVID Protocols during the workshop:

Crown Point Press is following all current State of California and City of San Francisco health mandates. Workshop participants must include proof of vaccination and booster in their application; an emailed photo of both is sufficient. Masks must be worn at all times in the Crown Point building. Workshop participants must wear N95 masks at all times in the Crown Point studio; these will be provided. We will encourage social distancing. Lunch should be taken outside and we can recommend public spaces that are ideal for eating.

CANCELLATION POLICY: The fee for the week-long workshop is $1800 not including the costs of paper and copper which are tallied and billed to you after the workshop based on use. If you cancel before May 2, we will refund half the workshop fee ($900). If you cancel after that date for any reason, we will keep the entire fee.

We look forward to seeing you this summer!
